Directions: The Interim Assessment Analysis will consist of three parts. Part I involves a quick analysis aimed at answering the questions in the questionnaire below. Take the time to answer the questions as they pertain to your class in general and your small group in particular. Part II will be a detailed analysis of which standards students need work on divided into whole-class needs and small-group needs as well as ideas for how to teach each standard (Parts I & II are due at your results conference). Part III will be a more detailed 6-week instructional plan that will lay out when and how you will teach each standard (Part III is due at 7AM on Tuesday, April 15th).

PART 1

What are the standards and questions I had expected students to do well on?

Were my predictions accurate?

What are my biggest priorities going forward (which standards)?

Look at bombed questions—did students all choose the same wrong answer? Why or why not?

Who are the strong and weak students in this assessment?
