

RETIREMENT CONSULTANCY CONTRACTS

The Board of Education recognizes that because of their experience and knowledge retired certificated employees may be uniquely suited to performing specialized work of limited duration. In order to help perform this specialized work, the Board may offer retirement consultancy contracts to certificated individuals who meet the qualifications required by law and administrative regulation.

Adopted: May 9, 2007