- This is a promotional visit to Lakeside Lutheran High School. It is to encourage the student to enroll at Lakeside.
- The visitor is subject to Lakeside rules and policies during the visit and at after-school activities. School administration may ask the visitor to leave the Lakeside campus for failure to follow school rules or policies or if the visit becomes disruptive.
- Sign in at the office upon arrival. Visitors wear a pass during their stay.
- The visit should be on a no school day for the visiting student. If the visit is on a school day for the visitor, the visiting student's principal must sign below.
- Visiting students may visit once a school year.
- Lakeside students on conditional enrollment or under disciplinary action may not be host visitors. Visiting students under similar restrictions at their schools are not allowed to visit Lakeside.
- Visitors are not permitted on the last day of school or before major vacations such as Christmas, spring break, or Easter.
- Bring only students that are considering enrollment. Students at other high schools generally are not candidates for enrollment at LLHS.
- Lakeside administration has the right to refuse or cancel a promotional visit.
- This form is due at Lakeside no later than the day before the scheduled visit.
