AP EUROPEAN HISTORY

BRITAIN: A CASE STUDY IN THE EVOLUTION OF DEMOCRACY

Part A - Use your textbook to explain how each of the following expanded democracy in Britain.

1. Reform Bill of 1832 (p. 594) - ________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________________

2. Reform Bill of 1867 (p. 627) - ________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________________

3. Reform Bill of 1884 (p. 665) - ________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________________

4. Redistribution Act 1885 (p. 665) - _____________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________________

5. Parliamentary Act of 1911 (p. 665) - ___________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________________

6. Reform Bill of 1918 (p. 724) - ________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________________

Part B - Match the following dates and groups of enfranchised people. Some answers will be used more than once.

7. before 1830                         a.  male farmhands
8. 1832                                b.  male factory owners
9. 1867                                c.  businesswomen, age 27
10. 1885                               d.  miners
11. 1918                               e.  male, middle-class professionals
12. 1919                               f.  scrub women, age 35
13. 1928                               g.  male factory workers
                                           h.  adult male aristocrats
                                           i.  female aristocrats, age 38